Elks' Memorial.

Last Sunday afternoon at three o'clock occurred the annual memorial service of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, at the opera house in Carlsbad. Though no lodge of the order is located at Carlsbad the members here consisting of brothers from various portions of the United States, residents of Carlsbad and several of them for several years, concluded to assemble and pay tribute to the departed Elks, (the first service of the kind at Carlsbad or perhaps in any other town not having a lodge of Elks) who have passed to the great beyond in Carlsbad. The program was very impressive and was opened by J. R. Linn who, in a very neat and appropriate address, stated the object of the Memorial meeting and the Rev. Hoffman made a very interesting address and was followed by Capt. W. C. Reid, of Roswell, himself an Elk and who gave a history of the order from its inception. Capt. Reid was followed by Capt. E. P. Bujac who delivered one of his characteristic orations that is only necessary to mention to say that it was interesting and well delivered. The program was interspersed with singing, first a solo by Mrs. Fessenden, "One Sweet Solemn Thought," Then a reading "Thanatopsis" by Miss Jennie Linn; "The Savior's Coming" by Mrs. Parr, then followed the address by Capt. Bujac and a solo by Mrs. C. M. Wicher "The Peace of God." A quartette composed of Mrs. Parr, Mrs. Fessenden, Messrs. Kendrick and Kruse rendered "Old Lang Syne" most excellently. Then came the benediction by Rev. Shive and the audience was dismissed. The decorations were something unique and consisted in the names of those departed Elks who once made Carlsbad their home, being inscribed on a tablet which was at the background illuminated with electric lights. They were Frank Moore, of Monroe, La., who resided here a short time, Geo. L. Newton and Dr. L. A. Brice. The motto "The faults of our brothers we write upon the sands, their virtues on tablets of love and memory" was on the programs and the mottoes of the order were inscribed on tablets on either side of the stage and are, "Charity, Justice, Brotherly Love and Fidelity." The stage decorations were the offering of J. R. Linn who is an enthusiastic Elk from Connorsville, Ind. but has made his home here for the past eight years. The following is list of the local members of the Elks:

Linn, Groves, Welch, Church, Dannelly, Holt, Doepp, L. S. Crawford, Finlay, Bolton, Swaine, Rev. Hoffman, Kruse, Webb, Stewart, Stoutmeyer, Schwerdtfeger, Wangler, Eskridge, Osborne, Fawns; Bob Richards, John C. Draper, Dr. Erwin, W. H. Merchant.
